

TheSouthernHighlands.com

the new community market for households from swapace

Like to sell unwanted household goods online but:

- Don't know how to get in touch with others like you?
- Like to do it online—but don't know how to get started?
- Feel intimidated by the internet and the big trading sites?

Many householders in the Highlands feel the same way.

Now you can trade with them and others in the community easily, safely and for free at TheSouthernHighlands.com— a new site from SwapAce, the power behind online community markets.

What is TheSouthernHighlands.com?

It's a new community marketplace where households, groups and businesses can interact online. TheSouthernHighlands.com is much more than a place to advertise or trade—it's a full function online market.

At www.TheSouthernHighlands.com you can trade unwanted goods locally (and save petrol, money and time) - or trade with the world if you choose.

How is it better?

The online market is dominated by big players like eBay with lots of rules and big fees. Their sites are complex, hard to navigate, impersonal and inflexible. You can't swap or negotiate. You can't check out goods or the other party before you buy or sell. You can't control the outcome of high pressure auctions.

TheSouthernHighlands.com has all the pieces missing from the big sites:

- a unique market—where you can do far more than just trade goods
- a safer place—less likely to attract scammers and spammers
- a helpful place—helping you with setup, bulk uploads, hosting and more.

How is it better value?

www.TheSouthernHighlands.com is ready for you now—and it's free.

- No fees on sale of goods
- Ads are free (but you can enhance them for a small fee)
- Domains are free (but you can customize them for a small fee)

Any way you choose, TheSouthernHighlands.com is far better value than the big sites—and the ideal way to get goods going around your community.

How will it work in the Southern Highlands?

TheSouthernHighlands.com helps goods and services go around your community. Using www.TheSouthernHighlands.com:

- households can clear the garage without having a sale
- parents can swap or upgrade kids' clothing, toys or equipment
- students can trade books and equipment or find holiday work
- commuters can organize car pools and save petrol and money
- everyone keeps more money circulating in the local community.

Households can use TheSouthernHighlands.com for their own needs; interest groups, clubs, associations and community websites can link to it for additional services for members; businesses can use it for secure e-commerce without setup and maintenance costs; the community can use it as a private domain with login access for members only. The choice is yours.

Who is SwapAce?

SwapAce is a Sydney-based business founded in 2004 by a group of traders dissatisfied with the cost and constraints of the big sites. The site was launched in July 2005 and after a year is gaining over 200,000 hits per day and 2 million views per month. It has 125,000 members and is gaining 500 new members every day.

SwapAce's unique offer management system is patented. The company was a finalist in the Australian Secrets of Innovation competition in 2005, received an AusIndustry COMET grant for innovative technologies in Feb 2006 and was voted in the Top 10 Coolest Companies by Anthill magazine in August 2006.

What do people say about Swapace?

"As a new site member of Swapace.com, I am overwhelmed by the endless possibilities. I am rating Swapace.com as the greatest site ever created; the concept of getting something for nothing is truly out of this world." Chad

"...thank you for your efforts in preventing fraud on the site. ...something that ebay or overstock would never do. Nice to see actual customer service. Thank you again." Josh

"I love the idea of this site. For many years I have exchanged my art for items or money. Now I can do it on the net ..." David

As a community within SwapAce, TheSouthernHighlands.com has all the functions of SwapAce with local benefits too.

It's the marketplace of the future. You can be part of it. Please call us for details on 02 8509 5848 or email info@swapace.com
